

The Lace Society

The Lace Society was founded in 1968 and is the oldest National Lace Group in the UK.

Membership of the Society is open to anyone, anywhere, interested in the making, collecting and teaching of any type of lace and lace artefacts.

Membership includes:

Quarterly Lace Society Newsletter 'Lacemaking'

Library

The Society has a library of nearly 600 books available for members to borrow covering all aspects of lacemaking and the history of lace.

Society Merchandise

Courses and Museum Visits

Annual Rally

Held on the last Saturday in April at a central location.

As well as the AGM meeting there are suppliers, short workshops, Society lace display, raffle, secondhand lace equipment and book sale.
